

Jean Claude and Ayna
Baron and Baroness of Tir-y-Don
Atlantia

October 2007

Greetings unto Tir-y-Don,

Thanks to all who helped at Bloodlines. We had a wonderful time at the event and suspect our guests did as well. Many people helped out not just at the event, but also at the work day beforehand. We appreciate all who gave up another Saturday to work hard scrubbing canvas. For many people this is just a hobby; but it takes hard work to bring the dream of the SCA to life. The dedication and pride you have shown means the world to Us.

As We start looking towards the new year, it is time to begin thinking of Inter-Baronial 12th Night. As it is Our turn to host this event, there is much work to be done. Please contact Our Event Steward, Lady Rebekah, to see how you can assist.

As is tradition, We will choose Our Baronial Artisan by competition at IB12. The format for this year will be an A&S Triathlon. We would like for one entry to be something new to you, one to be something you can teach, and a 3rd entry of your choice. As with Our combat champions, We would like a letter of intent from all entrants. Please think of how you plan to represent the Barony when writing your letter.

Looking at recent events, it has become clear that pre-registering for an event is very important. It helps the hosts to plan better for the event. It makes it easier to check in at the gate. Plus, it's just good manners. Please remember when planning your event schedule to pre-register for those events you know you will attend.

We plan to attend the following events:

October 12-14 – War of the Wings II
October 20 – University
October 27 – All Hallows
November 10 – Marinus' Baronial Investiture
November 17 – Holiday Fair

In service to Tir-y-Don and Atlantia,
Jean Claude, Baron and Ayna, Baroness